AI Daily Open Continues a Legacy of Giving to Kids . . .

The group of Medinah Nobles, left, presented a check for $13,345, the 2016 gift from Medinah's Annual AI Daily Benefiting the Shrine Hospital Golf Open. This brings the total giving to our hospital from this event since 2003 to $275,000.

In the photo left, Nobles Jim Panaciotis, Ralph M. Perry, Sr., John Daily, Scott Sonnenberg, and Ron Comiano present the check to Bill Kuehn, Chairman of the Board. These Nobles, along with 95 golfers, joined forces in May at Bloomingdale Country Club for the 13th Annual AI Daily Open. They were pleased to be assisted by Doug Hepp and fellow Nobles from Orak Shrine, who participate annually with the Medinah Nobles with one or two tables.

We are grateful to our enthusiastic Shriners who, year-after-year, enjoy one another's company as they work hard for kids and our hospital and as they remember that great Medinah Noble, AI Daily, who served Medinah and our hospital throughout his life. His Lady Delores and son John, a Medinah Shriner, are always on hand to help us celebrate his generous life. Thank you, Friends!

Tripoli Temple to Be Featured on PBS's John McGivern Program

It's called John McGivern's "Premiere Party," and it's set for 4:30 PM, January 10, 2017, at Milwaukee's Tripoli Temple, one of the grand Shrine buildings of America. Tripoli's Donor Development Director Gerald Arnholt reports that leaders from Harley-Davidson, Miller-Coors Brewing, Potawatomi Casino, and Aurora Health Care have been invited to join Tripoli Potentate Doug Winter, Recorder Jim Christie, SHC - Chicago Board member Bob Manders, and Tripoli Nobles to the event, which will run from 4:30 PM until 8 PM, at Tripoli, 3000 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee.

Jim Christie noted that John McGivern's "Around the Corner" program highlights people, places, and programs across Wisconsin and is broadcast over PBS, Channel 10, Thursday evenings, throughout the State of Wisconsin.

Tripoli Temple was built in 1928 and totally restored in 2003 and 2005, bringing it to a pristine state of architectural grandeur unlike anything existing on the Milwaukee cityscape today. Designed by the architectural firm of Clas, Shepard and Clas, Tripoli exhibits lavish materials, rich polychromy, and skillful craftsmanship. It's a perfect site for John McGivern's "Premiere Party." All in the Shrine fraternity are honored!
